

Kiddies Answer Query of 'What Is Federation'

Lower Grades Have Some Idea of Work Being Done by Various Units.

"They help the motherless and fatherless and furnish them with toothbrushes and soap," wrote one little girl in the Washington school on a questionnaire which was circulated through the schools by the South Bend Federation of Social Service to find out how much they and their parents knew of the work which was being done by the 13 organizations which comprise the federation. This was an answer to the question, "What does the federation do for children?"

A little boy wrote, "Wash them when their parents are at work." "They give them schools and books," said another. "They put new clothes on the children and give them some food." "They buy their beds and blankets and send them in the Fresh air room." "They give them food and other things to eat." "Give children that are underfed nourishing food." "They buy their books and never let them starve." "Teach them self respect and to be loyal to their country." "Gives them soap and tooth brushes." "Gives them toothbrushes," one little one replied simply, and confessed that she thought the federation was made up only of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. "Gives them homes, clothes and recreation," wrote another, thinking perhaps recreation.

Thought It Government.
To the question as to what organizations made up the federation many children wrote in the names of some of the organizations, but included the post office, the Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, the courts, one making the sweeping statement that the federation was the city government.

"The federation is so that poor and rich can have equal rights," answers a sixth grade girl. "It is made up of the post office, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. They make good laws and control the public and give them good service." "They clean the streets for the city," answered one little boy. "It provides better recreation." "It helps the people to live, who ain't got no money."

Among the higher grades, the children were more informed and most of them agreed that "the organizations are not charity, but they are working so that in future we will have good citizens of those who otherwise would be cripples and invalids and a burden for the town."

POLITICAL PRISONERS FREED BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(By I. N. S.)—President Harding has commuted the sentences of Walter T. Neff, Ben Fletcher and John Walsh, political prisoners who were sentenced from Chicago during the war for alleged I. W. W. activities. It was announced at the White House that they are to be released on their own recognizance.

They, all of the men formerly lived in Philadelphia. The commutation is said to be conditional on their future good behavior. Fletcher and Walsh were serving 10 year terms, while Neff was sentenced to serve 20 years.

In releasing the prisoners the department of justice is understood to have informed them that they would be recommended if they were not law abiding in the future, at the same time cautioning them to "not encourage or be connected with lawlessness."

MISS FOLLY

By Juanita Hamel

If we could only see the real girl behind the mask every girl wears, what dangers of distress we'd all avoid! Many a man wears a mask he fondly believes is a wise though simple soul only to find out, too late, alas, that she should wear a cap and bells. But perhaps she wears a mask behind this mask—disclosing her REAL self only to the one she loves, leaving all the rest to bemoan what, after all, is just the blissful imagining of all-too-suspicious eyes.

Marriage of Ex-Kaiser Carries Out Dying Wish of Former Wife, Close Friend of Wilhelm Says

(Copyright, 1922, by I. N. S.)
DRESDEN, Nov. 1.—It was the ex-Kaiser's own wish—whispered into the ears of her husband as she lay upon her death bed—that he marry, according to a declaration made here today by Admiral Rebeur-Paschwitz, who has just returned from Doorn where he was serving as aid to the former German emperor.

The former aide said that the ex-Kaiser had frequently spoken of re-marriage on the part of her husband if she should die. Admiral Rebeur-Paschwitz has just received a message from Wilhelm asking him to escort his bride to be, Princess Hermine, to Doorn. The marriage will take place next Sunday.

The admiral is well-known in the United States. For four years he was naval attaché to the German embassy at Washington. Before that he had accompanied Prince Henry on his American visit and was in charge of the three German warships that went to the United States during Henry's visit.

Princess Hermine will leave Saar tomorrow for Leipzig where she will meet her oldest son. The ance with the marriage agreement the new alliance of the princess will still leave her children "fatherless."

William has sent an autographed letter to the employees on the princess' estate in response to their message of congratulation. "I am the happiest man in the world to possess the love of such a princess," wrote the former emperor in his letter.

Mother To-Be!

Do You Realize this Fact?

An eminent physician has shown why there is so much needless suffering on the part of many expectant mothers, for months before baby comes, as well as when baby actually arrives. This same great doctor found the way to avoid much of this suffering. Mother, your baby's nerves, its whole structure should be free from any influence caused by your months of useless misery and pain. You yourself can be free from much of it. Here is a little message to all expectant mothers:

Mrs. Ida Milton, 108 N. Tremont St., Kansas, Ill., says: "I am forced to say something in regard to your wonderful 'Mother's Friend.' Just one application gave me such relief I could hardly realize I was in pregnancy. Before I used it I was suffering with pains all over, and today, I am able to do my housework with all ease and without pain."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally, and enables the muscles, nerves and tissues to relax and readjust themselves with the growing changes during pregnancy, and at child-birth. It should be used for some time before baby comes—the sooner the better.

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. For three generations "Mother's Friend" has relieved expectant mothers of much needless suffering. Mother! you must avoid more greases and useless substitutes. Begin using "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold at drug stores everywhere.
